Broadway Restaurant Guttled by Fire

$6000 Blaze Guts NBC Food Store, Fireman Overcome by Smoke

A film called "Whistle Stop" so engrossed patrons at the Sequoia Theater Saturday that they failed to hear Redwood City fire whistles which brought all available firemen to a $6000 blaze just two doors from the theater.

Chief Mark E. Ryan said today the theatergoers were in no danger because there were two concrete walls between them and the fire and that therefore firemen had not emptied the packed house.

The fire, of undetermined origin, swept through the rear of the NBC Food Store, 2205 Broadway, completely wrecking a restaurant kitchen and causing smoke damage to food in a delicatessen shop at the front of the structure.

Box 17 was pulled at 9:24 p.m. by an unknown passerby. Two pumps, a ladder truck, and two hose trucks responded. The 18 firemen who answered the alarm, laid two two- and three-quarter inch lines and one three-inch line to the burning structure and brought the fire under control by 9:45 p.m.

Chief Ryan, an early arrival at the blaze, said smoke was so heavy inside the building that he could not at once see any flames. As soon as firemen had water to the scene the chief broke in a glass door to gain entrance.

Firemen Joseph McSherry was overcome by the thick smoke and firemen L. J. Wood and George Kelly suffered injured hands while fighting the fire.

Smoke finally escaped through an opened rear door which firemen had trouble opening because it was of metal construction.

The concern, owned by Angelo Franceschini and Joe Ferrando, was operated by Norman Estes and Robert Kelly. Damage, firemen said, is covered by insurance.

The fire was one of four Saturday.

At noon a fire in a water heating room in the Rudolph Hotel, Main and Stambaugh Sts., caused $1000 damage.

At 11:40 p.m., firemen extinguished a no-damage grassfire on

Supervisors Slash $39,145 From Budget

The county board of supervisors today slashed $39,145 from salaries requested by county department heads for the 1946-47 budget.

Directors Seek Permanent San Mateo County Blood Bank

SAN MATEO — Establishment of the San Mateo County Blood Bank on a permanent basis, previously discussed by bank directors, was approved at the annual meeting here Saturday, but final decision on the move and on erection of a headquarters building was deferred until a later meeting.

The blood bank now is housed in a former portable school building on the San Mateo Junior College campus and is reached by way of the driveways of Mills Memorial Hospital and the Church of St. Matthew, Episcopal. Its $1 a year leasing arrangement terminates shortly.

The bank has been aided financially by the San Mateo County Community Chest. Saturday, the trustees voted to again file application for financial aid from the chest.

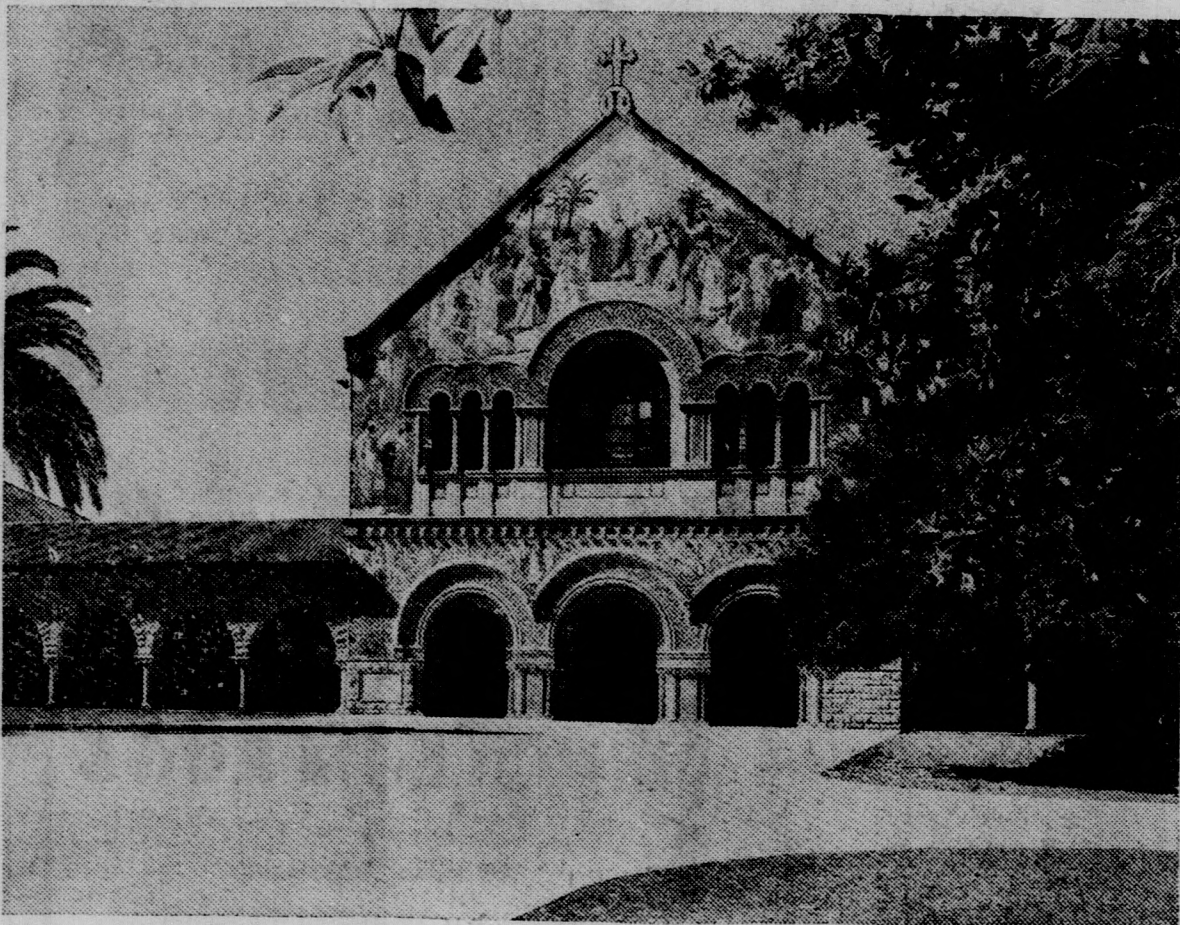

Dr. Carl L. Hoag of San Mateo was re-elected president, U. S. Simmonds of Burlingame was re-elected vice president and Mrs. Paul J. Hanzlik was renamed secretary-treasurer. Dr. James F. Rinehart and Charles C. Sullivan were returned to the board of directors.

In his annual report, Dr. Hoag said the bank has a total of 1548 units of plasma stored at various key points of San Mateo County to be used in case of large scale disaster.

History Repeats in Bayshore Death

For the second time in 24 hours an automobile collided with a Greyhound bus on Bayshore Hwy. on Bonney Hill, just south of the San Francisco County line, killing an occupant of the car. Above, the smashed sedan of Bert R. Herbert of San Francisco, who died Saturday night after the accident. Herbert was one of four to die over the weekend in San Mateo County as the result of automobile accidents. (Tribune photo)

Fatalities Boost Year's Total to 30

San Mateo County experienced one of its most tragic weekends of the year on its highways over last weekend with five persons meeting their deaths to bring the toll for the year to 30. Twenty-four persons had been killed on the county's highways at this time last year.

One of the accidents late Sunday afternoon involving a Pacific Greyhound bus and two automobiles was in the same general location in which a discharged navy veteran was killed in a bus-car crash Saturday morning.

Killed Sunday were: Bert R. Herbert, 30, 743 Bacon St., San Francisco.

Harold O. Sanders, 40, Rockaway Beach.

Mrs. Catherine Lavin, 32, 55 Allison St., San Francisco.

Harold F. Meyer, 43, La Honda, died in Mills Memorial Hospital at San Mateo Sunday from injuries suffered in an automobile accident at San Mateo last Thursday.

Calvin Mann, 21, whose discharge papers gave his home address as Grand Island, Neb., died Saturday morning.

Meantime, Henry E. Sorenson, 53, South Palo Alto, was killed in Santa Clara County on El Camino Real opposite Dinah's Shack early Monday morning. He was struck at 12:30 a. m. by the southbound car operated by Floyd C. Saunders, 27, of Mountain View. Saunders was not held.

Eight persons were injured, including one seriously, in the three-vehicle accident involving a bus in which Herbert was killed and driver of one of the cars miraculously escaped injury when his automobile turned over several times.

Oliver W. Myers, 40, 2401 El Camino Real, driver of the northbound bus, and Edwin M. Ackley, 27, San Diego, USMC sergeant, told California Highway Patrolmen that Herbert was driving at a high rate of speed on the wrong side of the highway while passing Ackley's car.

Herbert's car and the bus collided in the fast northbound lane on Bayshore Hwy. opposite the Out-of-town Club south of Brisbane and the car driven by Herbert bounced into the car driven by Ackley. Herbert's car skidded off the road, the bus careened to the west shoulder of the highway and Ackley's car turned over several times.

William A. Nagelmaker, 24, 46 Mirakel St., San Francisco, passenger in Herbert's car, was the most seriously injured of the survivors. He was in South San Francisco Hospital undergoing treatment for abrasions on the head, arms and chest and possible internal injuries.

Others injured in the accident, all minor, were Myers, no treatment; Eliza Stone of San Francisco, treated at Mission Emergency Hospital, San Francisco; Marie Helt, 52, Oakland, treated at Mission Emergency Hospital; Eva Erickson, 78, Oakland, Mission Emergency Hospital; Laurene Boyer, San Francisco, no treatment; Margaret MacDonald, Alameda, no treatment; and Marilyn Gleason, San Francisco, no treatment. All the injured except Nagelmaker were riding on the bus.

The accident occurred south of the bus-automobile crash on Bonney Hill Saturday morning which cost the life of Calvin Mann, and serious injuries to two of his brothers, 82-c Kenneth Mann, who was taken to Camp Shoemaker for treatment, and William Mann, 34, San Francisco, who is under treatment at Fort Miles in San Francisco, and to Wilford Leffler, 23, San Francisco, driver of the car in which the Mann brothers were riding.

Sunday's bus two-car accident occurred at 6:20 p. m.

Sanders died at 10 a. m. yesterday at Mills Hospital from injuries suffered at 2:40 a. m. Sunday when his light delivery truck failed to make a slight curve on El Camino Real two-tenths of a mile south of the Millbrae intersection. The vehicle struck a hedge and overturned, landing on its top. Sanders was trapped under the steering wheel.

Mrs. Lavin, wife of Emmett F. Lavin and mother of three children, was killed instantly when struck by a car while she was walking along Junipero Serra Blvd. in Daly City. A technical charge of manslaughter has been filed against Harry De Gray Birch, San Francisco, driver of the car which killed Mrs. Lavin. Mrs. Lavin was unidentified for several hours. A silver anklet bearing the name of C. Lavin was the only clue to her identity.

Valentino Garcia, 17, of 210 Hemlock St., suffered a deep laceration on the face when the automobile in which he was riding hit a guard rail and overturned on Pescadero Creek Rd., north of Pescadero, early Sunday morning. He was admitted to Community Hospital.

Fred Ferrera, 17, of 271 Beresford Ave. driver of the car was not injured.

An automobile driven by Moses K. Salz, 948 Durston Ave., was towed to a garage Sunday after being struck by a Pacific Greyhound Lines bus driven by E. M. Roberts, 821 Ashbury St., San Francisco, at El Camino Real and Rodgers St. Salz said he was turning right from El Camino Real at the time he was hit. The right front fender, the bumper and radiator of his vehicle were damaged. Police did not know the damage to the bus because the driver left the scene before they arrived.

Construction Boom In Belmont Told

Building "boomed" in Belmont during the month of April, City Clerk Catherine A. Heatsner revealed today, when figures for building permits issued during the last 30 days were announced.

Of a total figure of $389,988 worth of building permits issued since Jan. 1, approximately 50 per cent of the permits—$193,427—were issued during the month of April. Of these figures, the figures for April were only $334 short of the total figures for the first three months of the year.

Permits issued since Jan. 1 were for the construction of 46 homes and 11 stores, Mrs. Heatsner said. Of these figures, the month of April accounted for 23 homes, one apartment combination worth $15,000, and five alterations.

Of the 23 permits for private residences issued in April, 11 were for the Belmont Park tract and totaled $87,450. The Belmont Park tract, a new subdivision near Notre Dame College, is expected to have 100 homes when completed.

Man Hurt, 3 Held In Cafe Stabbing

A stabbing at the "Dog House," restaurant at 2899 El Camino Real south of Redwood City, early Sunday morning left one man in Community Hospital with two stab wounds and two men and a woman in the county jail here today.

Larry Asavado, 30, 2626 Westmorland St., south of Redwood City, butcher, suffered severe knife wounds below his left shoulder when he was stabbed with a pocket knife allegedly thrown by Herbert D. Ewing, 28, 753 Victory Ave., South San Francisco, carpenter, according to the sheriff's office. Ewing is held on charges of disturbing the peace and assault with a deadly weapon, and Imogene Ewing, 21 South San Francisco, and Marvin Akers, 17, 154 Buckingham Ave., south of Redwood City, were charged with disturbing the peace.

Odd Fellows Celebrate Anniversary

The 127th anniversary of the founding of Independent Order of Odd Fellows was celebrated recently by Redwood City's Bayview Lodge 109 with a dinner party held in the lodge hall.

Judge Louis G. Hardie of Oakland, past grand master, reviewed the achievements of the organization from its early beginnings to its present membership in this state of 11,000.

Frank McBeth, also of Oakland, reviewed the highlights of his own 30-year connection with the lodge. McBeth, a former grand master, is now grand secretary of the grand lodge in the state.

Other speakers, introduced by Waldo Stone of Redwood City, incoming deputy grand master of Dist. 44, included Gilbert D. Ferrell, district attorney for San Mateo County, Rolfand F. Martin, incoming deputy grand master of Dist. 41, and Ivan Noll, noble grand.

A committee from the Rebekah Lodge 44, Olive Branch, cooked and served the dinner. Mrs. Simpson Reinhard was chairman of the committee and her assistants were Mrs. Genevieve Erskine, Mrs. Dorothy Martin, Mrs. Catherine Martin, Miss Flora Perry, Miss Ruth Reinhard and Miss Madeline Hefner.

Freeze Slows Building Here

A tabulation by L. M. Duncan, building inspector, showed today that a federal government freeze on commercial construction projects had been successful in Redwood City.

Checking over the number of permits issued in March, Duncan found that he had issued 22 for dwellings to be constructed at a cost of $145,550. During March he also issued permits for the construction of 11 duplexes at a cost of $82,000 and two triplexes at a cost of $18,000.

During April, he issued permits for the construction of 36 dwellings at a cost of $243,600, one duplex at a cost of $7500, and three apartments at a cost of $58,000. The apartment will contain 17 housing units.

The money total for March was $245,550 as compared with $309,100 in April. Actually, however, total construction was off in April. During March Duncan issued permits for the construction of 14 commercial buildings at a cost of $204,000 and for additions to seven commercial buildings at a cost of $44,000. Only one permit for a small commercial building was issued this month.

Little Merchants Hold Outing

Thirty-two "little merchant" carriers from the Redwood City Tribune were guests of James A. Wood, circulation manager, and Ray Truett, assistant manager, at a picnic yesterday at Flood Park.

The entire day was spent in playing football, baseball and softball games. A picnic lunch was served, topped off with an ice cream feed. Assisting with the arrangements were district managers Milton H. Faust and Clifford Patten.

2 Sequoia Youths Go to Boys' State

Two young men of Menlo Park have been chosen by American Legion Post 443 and the Menlo Park Lions' Club to represent the city in the annual state-wide Boys' State in Sacramento, June 21 and 22.

Drew Terranore, 16, of 24 Spruce St., a junior at Sequoia High School was chosen by the Legion Post; Fritjof Thygeson, 16, of Los Arboles St., also a Sequoia High School junior, was selected by the Lions' Club.

The convention at Sacramento, sponsored by the state American Legion, is held each year to give an opportunity to promising young men to observe the workings of city, county, and state governments. The boys will be instructed in government procedures by state officials and by members of the house of representatives. They will be housed in San Francisco Junior College while attending the meeting.

In past years 600 boys from throughout California have been present. There will be 15 representatives of the 26th district of the American Legion, which includes all of San Mateo County.

R.C. Man to Spend Weekends in Jail

James L. Swinyer of Redwood City will not be home with his family for quite a few weekends.

Superior Court Judge A. R. Cotton this week granted Swinyer one year's probation for contributing to the delinquency of a minor on the condition that he serve 90 days in the county jail, to be served on weekends. Judge Cotton allowed Swinyer time out during the week so he could support his family.

Couple Injured

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Osborn of 900 Olive St., Menlo Park, were given emergency treatment at the Palo Alto Hospital Sunday night after their car crashed into the fence at the entrance to Dumbarton Bridge in an attempt to avoid collision with an approaching machine. Mrs. Osborn suffered lacerations of the scalp, and her husband was cut about the mouth. Neither was admitted to the hospital.

Hundreds of R.C. Children Compete for Pet Show Honors

A large St. Bernard owned by Bill Bloomquist ran away with most of the attention Saturday at the Redwood City Recreation Dept.'s annual kids' pet show. The Atherton animal decided that he had had enough judging for one day and took off for home, young William in tow. Alfred (Red) Morton, city recreation director, said today both the boy and the dog pached Atherton safely.

There were 136 pets entered. Judging was handled by Robert Berman who awarded the following citations—

Mrs. Hogmire Reported Seen

The mysterious case of the disappearing Mrs. Lorene Hogmire of San Francisco is becoming less mysterious.

Franklin Hogmire, husband of the woman who disappeared last Wednesday morning while he was at the bottom of a cliff at Devil's Slide on the Coastside searching for the body of 15-year-old Thora Chamberlain of Campbell, has notified Sheriff James J. McGrath's office here that waitresses at a Woolworth store in San Francisco, where Mrs. Hogmire formerly worked, saw Mrs. Hogmire in the store between 3 and 4 o'clock the afternoon she "disappeared."

Peninsula Schools Meet at Sequoia

More than 250 student representatives of the eight high schools in the Peninsula League met at Sequoia High School Saturday for an all-day conference on a variety of academic problems.

Guest speaker for the meeting was the Rev. Donald Lehmann, pastor of the East Palo Alto Community Church and former army chaplain in the European Theater, who spoke on "The Student and the Postwar World."

"You students gathered here today," Dr. Lehmann told his youthful audience, "along with young people the world over, hold in your minds and in your hands the hope for a better world of tomorrow."

Following Dr. Lehmann's talk, the students split up into groups for panel discussions under the leadership of the student body officers of the various high schools. Topics for the conferences were student government, journalism, extra-curricula activities, better relations among schools, student elections, school finance problems and school award systems.

Bob Chuck and Pat Sanders, Sequoia High School seniors, were in charge of preparations for the meeting.

LUMBER PILE BURNS

A pile of reclaimed lumber on the V. C. Hobbs property at 61 Atherton Ave. in Atherton was partly destroyed Sunday by fire of unknown origin. The Menlo Park Fire Dept. responded to a call at 10:34 p. m. and checked the blaze. The wood was part of remains of a barn recently torn down on the property.

Hospital Facilities Inadequate: Gans

Terming the hospital facilities in this county "totally inadequate," Dr. Charles C. Gans, director of public health and welfare, Monday announced he has recommended to the San Mateo County Medical Society the construction of a new general hospital with an immediate 400-bed capacity.

Dr. Gans declared that to meet the present requirements of the population of this county, there are needed from 57 per cent to 61 per cent more general hospital beds in the county than the present number of 335.

He declared that to meet the needs in 1950, there should be from 300 per cent to 330 per cent of the present number; in 1955, the requirements may range from 400 per cent to 450 per cent of present beds.

Dr. Gans also stated that plans need to be flexible enough to provide for growth every 5 or 10 years. The medical society will take up Dr. Gans' recommendation at its next meeting and it is expected that some definite recommendation will be made at that time. Means of financing such a hospital and selection of a site would have to be determined by the medical society.

Observers believe that Dr. Gans' recommendation will be a boost for the proposed Sequoia Hospital Dist. Dr. Gans said, however, that the proposed hospital in the Sequoia district would not be sufficient for the entire county.

Dr. T. R. Ponton, who made a survey of hospital needs in Redwood City, recommended that the hospital be planned for an ultimate capacity of approximately 150 beds but that only 50 to 75 beds should be built at the present time.

Dr. Gans pointed out that there has been no addition to hospital facilities in this county since a wing was added to Community Hospital in 1934.

Dr. Gans said he was not favorable to a county-owned general hospital.

Among ways the hospital project could be financed include public subscription, private donations and the selling of stock to individuals. There are more than 100 physicians in the County Medical Society. Dr. Albert G. Miller of San Mateo is president and Dr. J. Paul Swenson of San Carlos is secretary. San Mateo County in former years has sent its overflow patients to San Francisco but San Francisco does not now have enough hospital facilities for itself, it was reported. Some San Mateo County physicians have to send patients as far away as Stockton for hospitalization, it was stated.

Dr. Gans told the medical society that the minimum bed capacity in San Mateo County should be not less than five beds per 1000 population.

"At this time a most conservative estimate of the county's population is not less than 175,000, which means that at this time we should have not less than 860 beds provided in general hospitals," Dr. Gans said. "This is indeed a situation that can be termed extremely acute."

"Now it appears that a hospital program on a large scale must be instituted and ways and means provided that will accomplish this objective; that is, additional hospitals at this time."

"In initiating a program of this kind, it might be well to bring forth the fact that increasing developments in this county and that the rapid increase in population within a decade will present a repeated problem of this kind. Therefore, any program devised at this time must give full consideration to future needs; and those needs for the sake of economy and service should be estimated for a period of not less than 10 years."

Dr. Gans declared that facilities and staff at Canyon Sanatorium are "totally inadequate."

"We are not only having to refuse admittance to this institution for lack of bed space but are, practically speaking, unable to give totally adequate care to those already confined, due principally to the fact that we do not provide adequate living quarters for the personnel engaged in these activities," Dr. Gans stated.

He said that construction of facilities to house the personnel was a program that could not wait but a "must" program.

Hospital beds in the county are provided at Mills Hospital, San Mateo; Community Hospital, San Mateo; South San Francisco Hospital and Junipero Serra Hospital, Colma.

EVERYBODY'S DEPARTMENT STORE

848-854 MAIN STREET, REDWOOD CITY

"Jeanie" the pet dog of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Barnett of Redwood City, stands guard over her new friend, "Donald the Duck." "And don't be so curious," Jeanie tells the photographer, "what's the matter with a mutt having a friend to pal around with?" Tribune photo.

Springtime Is Gardening Time

Nearly Ready for Launching

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith put the finishing touches on their 45-foot fishing boat "Maestro" which the pair constructed at the Redwood City Yacht Harbor. The vessel, which has all the modern conveniences, was launched Thursday night by the Smiths, with Mrs. Mae Smith, the man's mother, looking on. They live at 443 Alameda de las Pulgas. $2,000,000 Building Project in Belmont To Include 155 Homes

Plans for a $2,000,000 subdivision development which will provide 155 homes on 35 acres of the Barr Ranch between the Old County Rd. and the Bayshore Hwy. in Belmont were announced today by William Spivock, president of Grand Homes, Inc., the subdividers.

The tract, to be known as "Homeview," is bounded on the north by Ralston Ave. and on the south by O'Neil Ave. and has already been annexed to the city of Belmont.

Spivock said that first unit of the development comprises 155 lots on which are to be built single and two-family homes under the Veterans Housing program.

The single dwellings will consist of two and three bedroom homes with garage and will be available for sale to veterans only, with prices in the $7500 to $9000 bracket, the subdivider declared.

Spivock said that representing all parties in the negotiations for the purchase of the land and its subdivision and engineering was John Cockroft, Burlingame realtor who has represented Spivock and his interests on the Peninsula for the past three years.

The engineering and subdividing of the tract is being done under the supervision of William D. Soule Co., of San Mateo. The street improvement work, already in progress, is under contract to the California Paving Co., of San Mateo. The tracts are to be improved with standard streets, rolled curbs and sidewalks and other public utility improvements in accordance with specifications approved by the city engineer of Belmont.

Taxicab Driver Jailed On Charge of Battery

Sidney J. Wittman, 44, 420 East Hopkins Ave., was in the San Mateo County jail today on a charge of battery.

Police said the Yellow Cab Co. driver was arrested on a complaint signed by Allen L. Rogers, 262 Hudson St., a Luxor Cab Co. driver.

The complainant, police continued, suffered a broken nose several days ago in an altercation with Wittman near the Greyhound Bus Co. station.

Bowen Named Secy.-Manager For Peninsula Celebrations

Kenneth L. Bowen, Redwood City newspaperman, has been named secretary-manager of the Peninsula Celebration Association to work on the coming Fourth of July Fodas. Bowen was chosen unanimously by the committee members after Francis Britschgi, president of the organization, reported the need for such a person to work out the details of the celebration.

Britschgi said that Bowen would work on a part-time basis till June 1, then devote full time to the show until after its conclusion. He will establish an office immediately in the recreation department on the second floor of the city hall.

Britschgi emphasized that the manager would not assume the duties of any of the many volunteer committees working on the show, but would help co-ordinate their work and give assistance where required.

Bowen recently said his interest in the Star Advertiser.

"Mr. Bowen as secretary and publicity chairman of the 1941 show had much to do with the success of that big celebration, and we felt he was fully capable of carrying on with the plans being made for the 1946 event," Britschgi explained.

At that time, Bowen was editor of the Tribune. During the war he served in the navy as a beachmaster in the Pacific, returning home last November.

In taking over the secretary-managership, Bowen said this morning he was glad to be able to assist in the show in an even greater capacity than that of publicity chairman, which he was already handling.

"This is going to be the biggest event Redwood City has ever staged," he said, "and there is a great deal of work to be done by everyone in the community if it is to be a complete success. I am happy to have an important part in it, but believe the outcome of it will depend not so much on me as on the co-operation given by everyone connected with the event. Therefore, I ask a continuance of that co-operation which has been manifested so far, in order that we can have a truly great show here in July."

Indianapolis, Ind., is one of the few large cities in the world not situated on a navigable river.

Seek to Keep Mills Annex At Community

Four representatives of the San Mateo County Medical Society petitioned the County Board of Supervisors, meeting in caucus in the courthouse in Redwood City this week, to extend the deadline of July 1 by at least two months for the Mills Hospital overflow into Community Hospital and its annex.

Appearing before the board were Dr. A. G. Miller, president; Dr. Logan Gray, Dr. William Key, all of San Mateo, and Dr. James F. Rinehart of Hillsborough.

Dr. Miller said: "During the war emergency Mills Hospital ran the annex at a deficit, but the 22 beds there were and still are desperately needed, as well as the 12 beds used in the hospital for overflow cases from Mills Hospital."

"We feel that the wartime emergency still exists, not only for hospital beds in San Mateo County but also for San Francisco and Santa Clara Counties."

"We therefore asked the supervisors to reconsider taking over the beds used by Mills at Community Hospital, and allow at least a two months' extension period."

"Meanwhile we may know which way the pendulum is swinging (in reference to how many beds there will be in this county because of the fiscal year proceedings and the June 4 election will be over."

He declined to express an opinion on the announcement of a proposal for 400 additional beds in the county, adding that he believed there were enough county-controlled hospital facilities.

The county's move to take back the Community Hospital facilities is prompted by a need of indigent older persons now boarded out at a greater expense to the county, he said.

Meanwhile E. R. McDonald, chairman of the board of supervisors, said the supervisors were discussing the situation in an endeavor to relieve the county's problem of taking care of indigents, and still work out a solution for Mills Hospital overflow.

County Executive Frederick Peterson expressed the opinion that existing hospitals in the county should be expanded rather than building a centralized general hospital.

"If there are sufficient private hospitals in the county with adequate facilities, the Community Hospital would be relieved of some of its burden."

"I think it would be more practical to enlarge existing hospitals."

Dr. Charles C. Gans, county director of public health and welfare, said that he would settle for any way of getting 400 more hospital beds in the county, preferably now, county owned or controlled. He is in favor of either a new general hospital being built or enlarging present hospitals.

He emphasized again that his survey which revealed the county's acute shortage of facilities was made for the purpose of determining the needs of the county, and that he was merely pointing out the need.

Grant Protests 'Fire Hazard'

County Engineer M. A. Grant recently protested to the board of supervisors what he terms a fire hazard at Redwood Village adjoining the south line of Redwood City off Middlefield Rd.

"There isn't a fire plug in the place," Grant declared. "The nearest one is in Redwood City at the corner of Charter St. and Middlefield Rd. This plug is a quarter mile from the center of the subdivision."

"At the present time there are about 125 houses either complete and with tenants or in the course of construction. I believe the county has an equity in this job and would suggest the board require the subdividers immediately to install the necessary hydrants."

Conway & Culligan are the subdividers.

The matter will be on the board's agenda for May 7.

$2750 in Prizes At July 4 Fete

Prize money amounting to $2750 will be awarded for the nine events scheduled for the Redwood City July 4 celebration. Dr. J. R. Whitman announced this week.

The rodeo chairman expressed the hope that the money awarded would draw top performers from the Cowboy Assn. of America to the three and a half hour show.

John Olsen of the San Mateo County Mounted Patrol said that 12 trophies would be offered entrants in the horse parade which will precede the rodeo on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evening during the celebration.

There will be trophies, he said, for cowboys and cowgirls and for groups of horses and riders.

The celebration, which will feature fire works, a queen contest, dances and concessions, will be sponsored by the Peninsula Celebration Assn.

Official Rodeo Seal Available

A reminder that all local printing shops have engravings of the official Fourth of July Celebration seal, like that shown here, only smaller, and can use it on envelopes, circulars or other mailing pieces, was issued this week by Kenneth L. Bowen, newly-appointed secretary-manager of the coming show. He asked that business people help publicize the celebration by asking their printers to put the seal on any printing being done in the next few weeks and that will be used before July 4.

"The seal can also be used in newspaper advertisements," Bowen said, "and this will help keep before the public an invitation to spend the days in Redwood City. On behalf of the celebration committee, I urge business men to consider using this seal on their printing or in their advertisements."

The seal was made by John W. Ryan, Redwood City druggist.

Realty Firm Opposes S.M. Golf Course Suit

Stiff resistance to any condemnation suit on the San Mateo Municipal Golf Course property was guaranteed this week by A. J. McBoyle, of Trevor & Co., San Francisco realty firm, representing the owners of the property.

"If they are going to try that, they will pay through the nose for it," McBoyle snapped. "I can get a higher appraisal on that property right now than any of the offers I have had for it."

He said he didn't think the talk now rampant in San Mateo and Burlingame of instituting condemnation proceedings to forestall sale of the property for subdivision purposes would have any effect on negotiations now under way for purchase of the property by Newbridge Park Realty Co. of San Francisco.

Youth Attacks Woman, Takes $201

A youthful attacker severely beat a Daly City woman at an early hour this week and though foiled in his attempt to rape her, he escaped with her handbag containing $201.75.

Mrs. Katherine Vittori of 52 Miriam St., Daly City, left a Market St. railway car at the intersection of Mission and Knowles St. at 4:30 in the morning. When she reached the Woodrow Wilson School a short distance away, a man jumped from an automobile, shoved her to the school entrance, struck her repeatedly and then tore her clothes in an attempt to rape her, she reported to Daly City Police Chief William Bolger.

When Mrs. Vittori began screaming the man picked up her handbag which had been dropped in the scuffle, and ran to his automobile. The handbag contained $50 in cash, a pay check of the Manning Bakery for $51.75 and a post office money order for $100, Mrs. Vittori said.

Police combed the area but could find no trace of the assailant who was described as being about 22 years of age. Police ascertained that the man had followed the street car on which Mrs. Vittori was a passenger, for a considerable distance. He drove a dark blue sedan.

Stanford Students Aid Relief Drive

Stanford students are going all out to help the hungry in European countries. Their favorite activity is heifers for relief, a national drive sponsored by churches and civic groups to finance replenishment of cattle herds overseas.

Both men's and women's living groups have voted to cut down food servings. Bread is definitely off the lunch and dinner menus; no oils are to be used for salad dressings. And pies and cakes are relegated to the luxury class—to be served sparingly, if at all.

At least three living groups will raise $150 apiece to buy a heifer for overseas shipment.

Retired Lt. Colonel Sues for Divorce

Grant H. Edwards, retired lieutenant colonel in the army, now living in San Carlos, who received head injuries when his outfit took an atoll in the Pacific, filed a complaint for divorce today in superior court. Charging cruelty against his wife, La Vell Gray Edwards, he asked for division of the community property.

The couple, both originally from Honolulu where they were married Dec. 31, 1940, own a house at 631 Dartmouth Ave., San Carlos, as joint tenants, furniture and a bank account. They separated Apr. 8. They have no children.

Open Nationwide Drive to Save Food

As Mayor W. W. Hilton was preparing to enlist the aid of the city council and people of Redwood City, President Truman's Food Emergency Committee appealed today for energetic community campaigns throughout the land to conserve food for famine relief. Hilton will bring the problem before the council Monday night.

The nation's mayors were called upon individually to get these drives rolling by setting up local Food Emergency Committees that will enlist the united efforts of the community's leadership.

1. Increased black market traffic in butter was indicated by an Agriculture Department report, which said stocks available at regular outlets seemed to decline last month despite moderate gains in the amount of butter produced.
2. Secy. of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson voiced increased optimism over prospects for a bumper wheat crop. He said the crop is maturing two weeks earlier than normally in most wheat areas and called this an encouraging sign.

3. Rains in the northern plains regions extending as far south as Kansas yesterday made welcome news for crop experts, for an earlier weather bureau report stated that rain was urgently needed in several parts of the area.
4. The Agriculture Department announced it will continue to make food purchases for foreign governments after July 1 because of the current crisis. These are for food-short nations who are ineligible for UNRRA aid and able to repay this country for supplies.

5. The way was cleared for the opening May 12 of a nation-wide emergency food collection campaign which will solicit contributions of canned goods and cash for famine relief. Secretary of Commerce Wallace, national chairman for this drive, and UNRRA Director General La Guardia ironed out differences over how it should operate.
